

69-70 Francis Street, Dublin 8, Ireland

Phone +353 (0)1 4732384 Email info@johnstonantiques.net

An important Georgian cabinet (Item #206)

An important George II walnut and mahogany cabinet. The doors with panels moulded and framed in mahogany. The swan-neck pediment all carved in mahogany. The interior of the upper section fitted with pigeon holes and secretaire drawers. Also with a tabernacle fitted with an inlaid chequerboard and sunburst drawer. Illustrated in R.W. Symonds "English furniture" 1929. Ex Perceval Griffiths collection. Circa 1735.

Height: 232.00(cms) 91.34(inches)

Width: 110.00(cms) 43.31(inches)

Depth: 58.00(cms) 22.83(inches)

